- “Student and hobbyist” tab click – Student “Sign up” or Personal “Get started” click

The screenshot displays the Unity website's navigation and main content area. At the top, there are three tabs: 'Student and hobbyist', 'Individuals and teams', and 'Enterprise and industrial'. The 'Student and hobbyist' tab is highlighted with a red box and a red number '1'. Below the tabs, the 'Student' section is visible, featuring the heading 'Student', a description 'Learn the tools and workflows professionals use on the job', the word 'Free', and a blue 'Sign up' button. The 'Sign up' button is highlighted with a red box and a red number '2'. Below the button, the eligibility criteria are listed: 'Students 16 years and older who are enrolled in an accredited educational institution and can provide consent to the collection and processing of their personal information.' To the right of the 'Student' section is the 'Personal' section, which includes the heading 'Personal', the description 'Start creating with the free version of Unity', the word 'Free', a blue 'Get started' button, a 'Learn more' link, and eligibility criteria: 'Revenue or funding less than $100K in the last 12 months'. Further right is the 'Unity Learn' section, with the heading 'Unity Learn', the description 'Master Unity with expert-led live sessions and on-demand learning', and a blue 'Start learning' button.
